Charging options – maximise efficiency and reduce downtime.

> The eSprinter can be charged via Direct Current (DC) and Alternating Current (AC).

The DC option offers speed, while AC is more cost effective for overnight charging.

When choosing your eSprinter you have a choice of two DC fast charging power variant options†:

- DC 80kW: 10 - 80% charge in 30 minutes
- DC 20kW: 10 - 80% charge in 2 hours.

DC is available at most UK service stations and will charge your vehicle faster but requires more energy to do so. Both eSprinter variants can also be charged via AC.

AC requires longer intervals to fully charge† but uses less energy:

- AC 7.2kW: 0-100% in 8 hours.

> Managing range and battery performance.

The eSprinter uses a process called recuperation that recovers energy when the vehicle is decelerating to help you efficiently manage your vehicle's range. There are 4 recuperation modes available, which can be adjusted via the gearshift paddles. The greater the recuperation, the faster you decelerate and therefore, the more energy your vehicle will regenerate:

- D- This mode will enable you to get maximum range from your Sprinter. It has maximum recuperation and fastest deceleration. Due to the deceleration being so strong, your vehicle will automatically activate your brake lights.
- D This mode has less recuperation than D- and has similar deceleration levels to a diesel Sprinter.
- D+ This mode has significantly lower recuperation levels and therefore will decelerate at a slower rate than a diesel Sprinter.
- D++ This is a coasting mode, meaning your vehicle will have no deceleration and will significantly reduce your vehicle's range.

†Charging times are subject to the power available at the location where the vehicle will be charged. Time stated is based on 7.4/20/80 kW power available.

The Mercedes-Benz eSprinter requires mains electricity for charging. Figures shown are for comparability purposes; only compare consumption, CO₂ and electric range figures with other vehicles tested to the same technical procedures. Figures may not reflect real life driving results, which will depend upon a number of factors including the starting charge of the battery, factory-fitted options, accessories fitted (post registration), variations in weather, driving styles and vehicle load. Zero emissions while driving. Further information about the test used to establish figures can be found at <http://www.mercedes-benz.co.uk/WLTP>
